

Our Service Today

This morning in worship we going to focus on the call to look to God as the source of our hope. As we study and listen to the book of Revelation, we are going to begin with a vision of Heaven, Revelation 5, given to inspire those of us on earth with real hope. There is a lot in the world today that saps us of our courage and hope. It is easy to be discouraged and overwhelmed. But if we lift our eyes and see the world through Heaven's eyes, hope is what we will find. Revelation is for most people the most ignored book of the Bible. For others, it seems like it is all they read. The book of Revelation is a great book, but it is not what most people think. It is neither a scary book nor it is a giant puzzle that when put together correctly provides a time table to the end of days. It is revelation of what is and what will be. Its purpose is to inspire us with strength and hope to live an over-coming life, today, in Jesus' name.

Here at West Side we believe everyone has a next step, so as you worship today, consider the following as potential next steps for you:

- I am going to develop the practice of seeing the world through Heaven's eyes and looking to Jesus Christ for security and hope. I am going to do this by reframing situations of stress and anxiety by including Jesus in the picture.
- I am going to start studying and grow in my understanding of Christian hope.
- To serve with other men at the Women's Festival of Tables (Dec. 2).

These next steps are also the same as the next steps on the connection card so that you can take a copy home with you.

Advent Sermon Series Begins Dec. 3: "Christmas Gifts - Five Gifts God Wants To Give You This Christmas"

Christmas is America's favorite holiday! As one well-known song puts it, "it is the most wonderful time of the year!" For followers of Jesus, it is especially significant. It is one of the few times where faith and cultural traditions blend together with harmony and joy. Whether your family enjoys singing Christmas carols, trimming trees, shopping for gifts, or gathering for a Candle Light Service on Christmas Eve, these are some of the many ways we can share the joy of the holiday with Christians and non-Christians alike.

At the same time, it can be a hectic time of the year. From the pressure on parents trying to make ends meet and still have gifts for kids to the busyness of trying to pack as much as we can into these few weeks, it seems easy to lose the sense of the holiness of the holiday. In the four Sundays leading up to Advent, we are going to slow down and pay attention to the fact that the good news of Christmas is that it is about gifts, but primarily it is about what God wants to give us.

If you are feeling worn out, tired, or overwhelmed, take time to let God's Word redirect you to the real purpose of Christmas. If you are looking for something deeper, richer, and more lasting than anything you can buy, listen to the good news that a Savior has been born for you!

This week we are praying for Joanna Cox with ISI at George Fox University. She recently wrote about one of the international students that she works with: "I wish I had an American friend ...' M. said while attending an intercultural discussion night that one of our volunteers arranged. 'I'll be your American friend,' I said. With these words, M.'s face brightened. Since that conversation, I have learned a great deal more about M., including the fact that M. is gifted at playing the guitar and piano. In her home country, M.'s love for music has led her to discover many different songs to play on her guitar, including the song, 'As the Deer,' a popular Christian worship song. 'I'd like to play on a worship band,' she told me. M. has been to church with me once and wants to come again."

Note: If you are admitted into the hospital, the Deacons would like to call on you. Please list "Presbyterian" on the admittance form and notify the Church Office (946.4656).

Thanksgiving Offering: Karel Coppock

During the holidays (Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter), West Side designates special offerings for missionaries. During these special offerings, a specific missionary is chosen for an extra financial gift from our congregation in order to meet their particular needs. Many missionaries over the years have been "blessed" in this way over the years except one: our own homegrown, hard-working West Side missionary Karel Coppock. This humble servant who is in full-time partnership with our congregation has only a portion of his annual financial needs covered by West Side. The rest comes from his caring "support partners."

Currently, Karel shares his "calling" with many of you. Have you not found your own ministries touched and broadened when Karel becomes your helpmate and prayer "partner"? Currently he's answered God's call through his visitation ministry, work with Deacons, Alpha ministry, prison ministry to Coyote Ridge, pastoring ministry with the Missions Council, and a teaching ministry on Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings.

This is our opportunity to lift Karel and Julie Coppock up first in our prayers and then through our love and Thanksgiving Offering. You can make a donation by using the envelopes on Sunday mornings or by listing "Thanksgiving Offering" on the memo line of your check. We are so grateful indeed for Karel and Julie!
