“The GAP” - Get Acquainted Place

WS North Room 7

with Fred & Pat Reich and Roger & Carol Johnson

The GAP serves as a relaxed place to meet and get acquainted with others - some who have recently started visiting West Side and others who have been members of our family for decades! We enjoy sharing with one another and typically read and discuss a Bible-based book. Come step into and experience Christian community with us!

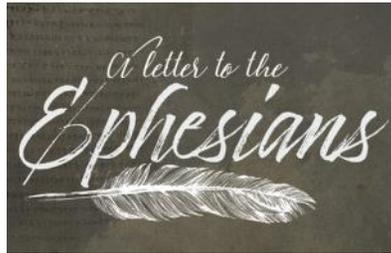

The Letter to the Ephesians

WS South Room 306 (Upper Room)

with Gene Carbaugh, Jina Fifield, Will Shaw

Paul’s epistle, known as “The Letter to the Ephesians,” is considered by many to be Paul’s most eloquent expression of the unity of all things in Christ and of what it means to live as His church. Written while Paul was imprisoned in Rome, in all likelihood it was a circular letter meant to be shared among churches rather than being directed specifically to the church at Ephesus. Join us as we study this “Queen of the Epistles” and explore its lessons for our own lives as followers of Jesus and late recipients of the circular.

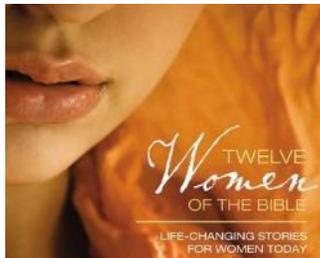

Women of the Word: 12 Women of the Bible

WS North Room 2-4 (Library)

with Marian Holm, Diane Pratt, Colleen Yahyaoui

We invite you to “Twelve Women of the Bible: Life-Changing Stories for Women Today.” Each lesson will focus on one biblical woman. These women will help you discover new insights and provide a powerful witness to God’s gracious love. You will be challenged, encouraged and empowered to face trials in your own life by drawing nearer to God as you study with other women. Women of all ages are welcome to join us.

“A Vision for Vocation: An Evening With Steven Garber”

What does it mean to be called? Come hear Dr. Steven Garber offer a broad vision of calling (or as he puts it, vocation) that pertains to all of life – in our homes, workplaces, and community. Steve is a husband, father, author, professor of Marketplace Theology and Leadership at Regent College, and the founding director of the Washington Institute for Faith, Vocation, and Culture in Washington D.C.

Steve says, “The word vocation is a rich one, having to address the wholeness of life, the range of relationships and responsibilities. Work, yes, but also families, and neighbors, and citizenship, locally and globally—all of this and more is seen as vocation, that to which I am called as a human being, living my life before the face of God.”

Coffee, beverages, and dessert provided.

Saturday, March 10, 9:00 am-12:00 pm

“Called to Flourish the Mid-Columbia”

What is God up to in our community to bring about the integration of faith, work, and everyday living? Come hear about the formation and vision of “Flourish Mid-Columbia” – a center for theological education for the everyday Christian in the Tri-Cities. Steve Garber and Rebecca Pousette from Regent College and Dan Wodrich, Flourish Director, will share the story and identify whole-life discipleship activities and resources – currently available and being planned – to bless and benefit individuals, congregations, ministries, and workplace leaders and groups in our community. Come explore God’s call to each and all of us to share in His flourishing of the Mid-Columbia.

Coffee, beverages, and brunch snacks provided.
