New Sermon Series: Apr. 8

We are all in it. The problem doesn't boil down to discipline, organization, or perfecting the schedule. It is not pressure from parents or children. The problem is this: there is not enough time to get everything done that we're convinced (or maybe others have convinced us) needs to get done. We feel the squeeze and every once in a while drop the ball. Sometimes, it is a project at work; other times, it is disappointing our children or our spouse. "Don't worry, I'll make it up to you," we say. So we speed up. Try even harder. It always feels like we are putting out fires or apologizing.

If this sounds at all familiar, we believe Jesus has come to help us live life to its best. He warned us that in this life we will experience this type of pressure. But he also promises to lead us into a new way of living. One where we can have both peace and hope that we are making the best decisions even in the most difficult of circumstances. God wants to bless us. This means he wants more than just surviving; He wants us to shine. The sermon topics will include the following:

Apr. 8 - The Problem: Over-Committed Loneliness (Psalm 127)

Apr. 15 - Picking-Up The Pieces (Daniel 1:1-16)

Apr. 22 - Make A Plan (Daniel 2:1-24)

Apr. 29 - Make A Stand (Daniel 3:1-18)

May 6 - You Can Do It! But You Don't Have To Do It Alone! (Daniel 3:19-30)

This week we are praying for Todd and Karla Poulter with Wycliffe Global Alliance. Todd recently attended a meeting in Africa and shared the following: "I am still trying to grasp the significance of what happened for the leaders from Africa and the U.S. During the closing session, one Eastern Africa leader told the group, 'I have been in this movement for 21 years, but nothing like this has ever happened in my experience – to have this kind of dialogue with our North American partners.' A leader from central Africa said, 'I used to see my American counterpart as this big, powerful person, but now he is my friend.' A third leader expressed what many were feeling, 'We have joy because we can express ourselves in a safe environment.' An American colleague told the group, 'In the future, when we look back on this time, we'll recognize it as a turning point in our relationship.'"

Note: If you are admitted into the hospital, the Deacons would like to call on you. Please list "Presbyterian" on the admittance form and notify the Church Office (509.946.4656).

Special Easter Offering: Merrie Goddard (France)

At Easter, we have an opportunity to assist one of our supported missionaries above and beyond their normal needs for the sake of advancing the gospel. This year, we will be sending our special offering to Merrie Goddard who works with Youth for Christ International in France. Even though France is the largest country in Western Europe, only 1% of the population attend an Evangelical Christian church. We all can't give the same amount, but most of us can give "something". Simply mark your check memo line with "Easter Offering" or use a special offering envelope available in the sanctuaries. There will also opportunities to meet Merrie when she visits us Apr. 10-27 (stay tuned for more details). Mark your calendars for Apr. 15 when Merrie will be sharing about her ministry during all worship services (8:15, 9:45, 11:15 am) and at a special lunch at 12:45 pm.
