Call to Worship

Leader: Jesus said, "The Spirit of the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor and release to the captives."

People: The words you have spoken are spirit and life. O Lord you have the words of eternal life.

Leader: Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, I am sending you."

People: For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

Leader: Jesus said, "I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last."

All: Blessed are the people of whom this is true; blessed are the people whose God is the LORD.

FRACTALS FAITH AND OUR FUTURE

How do you respond to change? For most of us, our first reaction to change is resistance. Maybe it is because we have too many memories of getting hurt because of change. But not all change is bad; even when it may be a little uncomfortable, there is positive change. All growth and development represents positive change. Maybe instead of resistance we need a new perspective.

In this series, we are going to talk about some of the challenges we face in a changing world. Our focus will be on our present and future direction of being an inter-generational community on mission together in Jesus' name. But what is true for our church family ripples over into issues we face in our everyday lives. Wrestling together will help each of us live better into Jesus' purposes for us.

Leadership in the church has been grappling with ideas coming from a book called "Growing Younger", and we want to share what we are learning. We believe that we are going to need to make some changes in how we live out our faith together. Not necessarily big changes, more often we are looking to make a pivot. A small adjustment.

This is an important series and we hope you will prioritize engaging with the messages. We not only want to share, but we want to hear your input so that as we look to change we can own it together. We believe God wants to lead us into a richer and fuller life by following Him and participating in his purpose.

WORSHIP EXPERIENCE

COME JOIN US THIS WED., SEPT. 19, AT 6:00 PM

As we kick off the fall session of Wednesdays@West Side, let's come together as one body for an extended time of worship. After our shared meal at 5:15 pm (WSN), we will meet in WSS Sanctuary at 6:00 pm for uplifting music, lights, multiple voices leading ... all in our desire to praise the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ. These times of worship are so much better when we are all together in unity, so please come ... it's not the same without YOU adding your voice to our collective expression of praise. You won't want to miss it.
