

BREAKING CHAINS

So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

It is for Freedom that Christ has set us free (Galatians 5:1). Jesus says, "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed" (John 8:36). How are we to experience true Freedom? Jesus is the way. Whether fear, addiction, anger, resentment, greed, insecurity, despair, Jesus has the ability and desire to set you free. Jesus wants to lead us into freedom by breaking the chains that hold us back from His blessings and tying us to his grace and power. In this series, we are going to see how freedom the way Jesus actually arranged his life becomes for us the means by which we learn to really live.

- | | |
|----------|---|
| April 28 | Choosing Your Chains (Phil. 1:12-26) |
| May 5 | Unchained by the Chains of Grace (Matt. 11:28-30) |
| May 12 | The Rest of Freedom (Matt. 12:1-14) |
| May 19 | Free Thinking (2 Tim. 3:16-17) |
| May 26 | Freeing our Speech (Luke 11:1-4) |
| June 2 | Freedom From (1 Cor. 9:24-27) |
| June 9 | Freedom For (Matt. 28:1-10) |