

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF PRAYER MINISTRY

Taught by Rev. Dr. James Kearney

August 28, 2019 at 6:30 PM

West Side Church North Sanctuary

Have you ever felt called to pray for others but have felt awkward and untrained?

---

This hands-on seminar will give you tools for praying in groups of 2-3 for people seeking spiritual help. The evening is especially designed for church leaders, counselors, Alpha helpers, small group leaders, Sunday school teachers, or those who simply wish to reach out to others in Jesus' name.

No registration is required for this event. Refreshments will be provided. Please let us know if you need childcare.

Dr. James Kearney is an ordained Presbyterian minister and church planter with years of experience in the area of prayer ministry. He leads the northwest branch of Dunamis Ministries, an arm of Presbyterian-Reformed Ministries International. Its goal is to equip the church to advance the Kingdom of Jesus Christ worldwide. Dr. Kearney earned a BA in American History from Yale University, a BFA, Cum Laude, in Acting from Cornish College of the Arts and a Master of Divinity and a doctorate of Ministry from Columbia Theological Seminary. His wife and he live in Seattle and have four grown sons: a pastor, a sports writer, a filmmaker, and a sound engineer.
